

Sheila Butler

I am Head of Academic Access and Achievement, and a member of the Senior Management Team at Seaford College. I have worked within education, both independent and state for the past 15 years. As Graffham is our educational neighbour, I was keen to extend my expertise to a local primary setting. I also have a son who has just started his primary career and am looking forward to learning more about the primary sector.

