

Esther Williams

I joined the Lavington Park Federation's governing body as a Parent Governor in the summer of 2021.

Before taking a career break to have a family, I worked in Internal Communications in London. Five years on and I'm working at Graffham Nursery having decided to retrain as a nursery teacher. In the last few years, I've started learning how to keep bees and hope to have my own hives soon.

